Fresh Vine and Ardent Giving Solutions Announce Partnership Agreement

Fresh Vine, the intuitive online church management solution and eGive, the online giving solution for churches have formally joined in partnership to offer online solutions to each other's customers. This agreement includes a commitment to integrate their software so that church members' online contributions will automatically be posted to the church's Fresh Vine data base.

"Online giving has proven to be a very effective tool for churches to expand contributions" said Paul Prins, president of Fresh Vine. "Our customers will be very excited to have an online giving solution that is integrated with Fresh Vine."

"We're excited to announce our partnership with Fresh Vine" said Bryce Collman, CEO/Founder of Ardent. "They are a great company that provides online church management for a very affordable monthly fee. For those of you who have been looking for a way to manage your roster, giving, groups, email, and services online - this is it."
